

BASEBALL RAIN HALTS NATIONALS BOXING JOE GANS DEFEATS BOWLING RESULTS OF GAMES ON LOCAL ALLEYS.

DECISION FOR GANS

Jabez White, of England, Is Beaten in Ten Rounds.

POOR SHOW, CROWD'S VERDICT

Negro Claims His Hand Is Broken in the Sixth Round—Briton Knocked Down Several Times, but the Former Champion Is Unable to Put Him Away for Keeps.

New York, March 12.—At the end of a ten-round bout between Joe Gans, former light-weight champion of the world, and Jabez White, the members of the National Athletic Club to-night reached the conclusion that Gans was a back number, while the Briton was simply a counter-fet.

Gans said he broke one of his hands in the sixth round, when he knocked White down twice.

Gans also had his man on the floor for the count in the seventh and eighth rounds, but he was so slow and his punches were so weak that he could not score a knockout.

When they began it was apparent that Gans was not himself. White showed a flash of his former skill in the first few rounds, but he had been floored he was evidently afraid to take chances. Gans was given the decision.

At one period of the mill the crowd thought that they were looking at a fake, but as the battle went on it was evident that it was a case of two played-out fighters trying to put up a bluff at the fist game.

Before Gans and White appeared a number of local celebrities were introduced in the ring. The first was Cyclone Johnny Thompson, and then came Battling Nelson, and then Paddy McFarland.

Philadelphia Jack O'Brien received a cordial greeting when he was introduced. Hugh McIntosh, the fight promoter, of Australia, received an ovation as he climbed through the ropes. He said it was his ambition to induce Jeffries to win back the heavy-weight championship for the white race. He also thanked the members for their applause.

The rounds:

First round—White led with a short left. White rushed with swings for the head, and Gans stepping aside of one of his punches. White stepped with a solid left. Gans blocked another rush and also punched White in the eye with a right. White ran into a half clinch, Gans belting him with a left and a right. As White advanced again, Gans swung to his other and the Briton clinched. It was Gans' round.

Second round—White rushed with a left for the head, which was well stopped. Again White came in at top speed, but Gans stepped away. Gans blocked another body shot, but White kept coming until both missed terrible swings for the head. Then they sparred for a moment at long range. Gans rapped the mouth with his left. White stepped and with several lefts in the face, and had the round on Gans' side.

Third round—White's left for the body was blocked. Then Gans ducked with a hard one for the head, after which both missed swings. White put a couple of lefts on the mouth, Gans standing up and continuing until the Briton ran away. At close quarters Gans came within a couple of inches of hitting White on the chin with an upper cut. White in another rally he shook Jabez with a hard right high up in the jawbone. White was worried at the end of Gans' round.

Fourth round—White rushed with a left on the ribs. Gans jabbing him in the mouth. Again White made every body count. Gans at close quarters made his men back with hard swings on the head and body, but White came back with a swing on the side of the head, a sharp upper cut. White said much attention to the body after that, but Gans did all the forcing, though he did very little hand hitting. The crowd booed when the bell rang. The round was about even.

Fifth round—Gans began to fight in earnest as they came up. He swung hard for the head, and White either blocked or stepped away. Gans came to the neck with a solid left, but he did not follow it up, and the crowd laughed in derision. Gans got his man cornered, but White came away without receiving a blow. White then stepped with body blows, and Gans looked weary. It was White's round, and the crowd was anything but pleased with the result.

Sixth round—White's left for the body was blocked. Gans put in a jab on the nose which drew blood. White was on the defensive when Gans dropped him for nine seconds with a smashing blow on the jaw. When White got up Gans went at him with a flash of his old power, and sent him down with a left hook on the jaw. White took a count of eight, and before Gans could further damage him the bell rang.

Seventh round—White began with a body punch. Then Gans put him on the defensive with blows in the stomach and several swings on the head. Gans stepped in with a volley of six and upper cuts which made the Briton clinch. But in the next rally White jarred Gans with a wallop in the chest. White then fell on his side and went down on the jaw. White falling on his side near the ropes for another count. He got up as the round ended.

Eighth round—White looked all right as he came up and put a left to the body. Gans followed him closely up and tried to land a right. White ducked and danced away, however. Gans got close and knocked White down for six with a right on the nose. White got up on the defensive, and Gans, slow as molasses, followed him with a weak attack. Both were tired when the bell sounded.

Ninth round—White missed a couple of hard swings for the head, but Gans stepped away. White ducked and danced away, however. Gans got close and knocked White down for six with a right on the nose. White got up on the defensive, and Gans, slow as molasses, followed him with a weak attack. Both were tired when the bell sounded.

Tenth round—As White advanced, Gans put a hard right over the heart. Then they sparred, each man's blows lacking power. Gans missed several uppercuts as White danced away, but the next moment White came back with a body punch which made Gans clinch. They sparred through the last half minute, and when the bell ended the round Gans was victorious. It was a victory for Gans, but not much to boast of.

French Team Leads Peds.

Madison Square Garden, New York, March 12.—The six-day peds kept on their merciless grind to-night, and up to a late hour there was no change in the leaders.

The Frenchmen have a gap varying from nineteen to thirty miles in front of the second team. Except something unforeseen happens, the first four teams are more than likely to finish in the order they now occupy.

Champion Lasker Beaten.

St. Petersburg, March 12.—Yesterday Champion Lasker had practically assured himself of the championship in this year's international tournament of chess masters, now in progress. But to-day a young Warsaw player, named Chotiminsky, created a sensation by defeating Lasker.

Earlier in the tournament Chotiminsky inflicted on Rubinstein the latter's only defeat, and now Rubinstein has an excellent chance of leading Lasker, who has fewer games to play.

THE WASHINGTON HERALD BASEBALL CONTEST.

The following is my selection of the line-up and batting order of the Nationals in their first championship game of the season with the New Yorks:

| BATTING ORDER. |           |  |
|----------------|-----------|--|
| NAME.          | POSITION. | Season Ticket, good for grand stand seat at all home games, to person presenting the first correct answer. |
| 1.....         |           | Contest opens February 26 and closes Saturday, April 10.   |
| 2.....         |           | Write plainly and address all selections to Sporting Editor, THE WASHINGTON HERALD.                        |
| 3.....         |           |  |
| 4.....         |           |  |
| 5.....         |           |  |
| 6.....         |           |  |
| 7.....         |           |  |
| 8.....         |           |  |
| 9.....         |           |  |
| NAME.....      |           |  |
| ADDRESS.....   |           |  |

SPORTING SIDELIGHTS

By BILL BAILEY.

Wonder what the Hatchet will spring next?

Let March 4 stay where it belongs. The team has enough double-headers as it is.

One beauty of a six-day-go-as-you-please race, like the one being held in New York, is that you may stay away if you please.

Very careless to say of an athlete that "he won the Sheffield handicap three times, twice under his own name and once under that of Donovan." Liable to make innocents ask questions and gain undesirable knowledge touching some lines of sport.

Says a headline, "Jeffries will come back for the big fight." But will he come back after it?

Why does a highwayman or a murderer always "whip" a revolver from his hip-pocket, Mr. City Editor?

Business High School's baseball coach was given a rude jolt after the game with Gallaudet yesterday. The coach occasionally writes pieces for the paper.

"What are you going to say about the game, Coach?" asked one of the infielders in the dressing-room. The answer came back: "Punk game; you fellows ought to go away somewhere and hide." A wee, small voice in the rear piped out: "Well, you're responsible for it."

Come close, you race track followers; here's a tip. At Los Angeles to-day in the fourth and fifth races play Cowan straight and place, and bet all you've got. If this advice proves good, come in and give Bill Bailey a $25 bill.

Do not fall to read The Washington Herald's four-page sporting section Sunday. It is the best in the South, and brimful of exclusive features, besides covering the news field in its usual thorough, reliable manner.

Also read the Bingleville Bugle to-morrow. It's funny.

Frank Gotch and Yusuf Mahmoud will settle the world's championship at wrestling in Chicago. "Tis well. We would rather have it percolated (did you get that word?) through 4,000 miles of ozone than word by word.

Hypo Reid mistook a taxicab in front of Bob Snooks' the other night for a street piano and tried to play it.

The electric line will be busy this evening carrying passengers over to Baltimore for the Fifth Regiment games. Bill Foley plans to attend, and it is likely that two trips will have to be made to get him over to the Monumental City.

Answer to an inquiry: Ray Brennan is not deaf and dumb by a long shot. You've got the name mixed.

Prominent golfer writes to thank The Washington Herald for its accurate account of the Middle Atlantic Association annual meeting held at the Willard Thursday night. A story, by the way, was exclusive and of considerable interest to Washington golfers.

Here's hoping Central shows 'em all up at the Fifth Regiment games in Baltimore to-night.

Chapel of Nativity Challenges. The Chapel of Nativity baseball team has organized for the season, and would like to hear from all teams averaging from 15 to 15 years of age, Manhattans, Crescents, and Alexandria Stars preferred. The lineup of the Chapel team follows: C. Buckman, center; Baker and Small, p.; C. Martin, lb.; W. Hildebrand, 2b.; W. Hale (capt.), 3b.; T. Boelter, s.; W. Carver, r. f.; H. Matlen, c. f.; F. Kendrick, l. f.

Fagan Is Navy Captain. Special to The Washington Herald. Annapolis, Md., March 12.—The Naval Academy swimming team has elected Lewis E. Fagan, at large, as captain of the team for the next season. This was the first year for a swimming team of the midshipmen, and the informal events held were marked by great success. Next year it is expected that some outside competitors will be arranged.

Shamrocks Want Games. The Shamrocks have organized for the season, and would like to arrange games with all teams averaging seventeen years. Address challenges to P. L. Tucky, 200 K Street northeast. The line-up of the Shamrocks is as follows: J. Mayhew, s.; P. Mayhew, 2b.; J. Tuohy, l. f.; Breen, 2b.; W. O'Dea, c. f.; P. O'Dea, 3b.; J. O'Connor, r. f.; M. Donahoe, p.; P. Tuohy, p.; F. Stephen, p.; J. Morris, c.

JOE TURNER

World's Champion Wrestler. Announces that he has opened a Buffet for Ladies and Gentlemen at 602 Penna. Ave., and will be glad to meet his friends.

JEERS AT BIG OFFER

To Jeffries $50,000 Purse Is Mere Bagatelle.

SEATTLE WILL GIVE $150,000

For Fight Between Former Heavy-weight Champion and Jack Johnson During the Exposition—Battling Nelson Arrives in New York Looking for Match—Hayes Strong.

New York, March 12.—James J. Jeffries learned this afternoon, just before he went on the stage at the Lincoln Theater, that Hugh McIntosh, of Australia, had arrived here on the Mauretania and professed a willingness to give a purse of $50,000 for a battle between Jeffries and Johnson.

McIntosh is the promoter and referee who pulled off the Johnson-Burns contest in Australia last December.

"So he offers $50,000, eh?" said Jeffries, sneeringly. "Why, that's a piker's offer. A syndicate in Seattle has made a bonafide offer of a purse of $150,000 for the fight, to be fought at the Seattle Exposition, and that offer is, I am convinced, on the level."

"I have never met Mr. McIntosh, and he has never met me. I see he says he wouldn't think of offering a purse unless he was personally convinced that I was in condition. I am not asking Mr. McIntosh to judge whether I shall enter the ring again or not."

"It is not a matter of money with me, although when men are talking big money they ought to make their figures high. All the money in the world wouldn't drag me into the ring if I thought I was going to be licked. But if I got into such shape and thought I could lick Johnson, I'd fight him for nothing."

When I met Mr. McIntosh I am going to treat him as a gentleman should be treated, but I don't go to talk fight with him. I have not changed my mind since the day I reached New York, when I said I would never enter the prize ring unless I felt sure I could get back into my old fighting form. That goes now."

McIntosh has come to New York primarily to launch the exhibition of moving pictures of the Johnson-Burns fight, and to convince me that he can get into perfect fighting shape. I will abandon any ideas I have of matching him against Johnson."

"If Jeffries can get into shape and will meet Johnson I think I could pull off the contest in England or France. If not I would take them to Australia. Personally, I think Jeffries is the only man I can whip Johnson at this time, but he has to be as good as ever he was in his life to do it."

When Battling Nelson arrived here today from California he was informed that he could probably have a match with the winner of the Owen Moran-Tommy Murphy ten-round bout at the Fairmont next Tuesday night. Nelson is ready to take on Gans, McFarland, White, Cross, Altier, Moran, or any other pugilist in a ten-round bout at the light-weight limit.

Johnny Hayes, who will meet Dorando in a Marathon race in the Garden on Monday night, is training on the Coney Island boulevard, and horsemen say he is slowly improving, but it will be many days before he will be able to get out of the hospital.

The Eastern High regulars and scrubs played a five-inning game at Fifth and L streets northeast yesterday afternoon. The score was not up to the task of the regulars with their runs, but the umpire awarded them the decision "on points."

The Independence League will organize at a meeting of the representatives of various clubs at the home of Nathaniel Worley, 74 R Street northwest, Monday, March 15. The principal business of the evening will be the framing of the schedule and the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Members of the Columbia Golf Club, as stated exclusively in The Washington Herald, are congratulating themselves for this afternoon, has again been postponed. April 2 is the date decided on, and the Brightwood race track the place. Manager Worley is in receipt of the entries from several clubs that could not have competed had the run taken place to-day.

The Central High entries in the Fifth Regiment games in Baltimore to-night have been announced as follows: Open 220-yard dash, Reuter; 440-yard dash, G. Lancaster; 440-yard open hand-cup, Hazen Rollins; one-mile run, Zeh and Bryant; 100-yard scholastic dash, Dewey, Lancaster, and Kelley; 100-yard open hand-cup, Dewey.

Several events have already been decided for the National Guard track games on Friday, March 26. A relay race for the club championship of the city, with the Advent, Bloomingdale, and Tremont Athletic clubs as contestants; a mile relay between the District of Columbia National Guard, the Fifth Regiment Athletic Association, and the Richmond Howitzers, a mile military relay between teams from Fort Myer, Washington Barracks, and the Marines, are all on the card.

Greene was the mainstay in the box for the Brookland Independents last summer, and his clever work was instrumental in winning many games for the fast aggregation of ball tossers.

He finished the season with the Howard team of the Commercial League, and his fast fielding and heavy hitting was partly responsible for landing the team in second place in the league.

Miss Moore and Grant Win. New York, March 12.—Miss Elizabeth H. Moore and Wylie C. Grant won two more matches to-day in the round robin mixed doubles lawn tennis tournament in the Sixty-ninth Regiment Armory, and apparently are booked to win the tournament. They have played and won six matches, and have only one more to go.

Washington Boys Signed. Sherman Greene and Kelley Harris with Pottsville. Two more Washington boys have signed to play with the minor league teams during the coming season. Kelley Harris and Sherman Greene having placed their hand Hancock to contracts to play with the Pottsville team of the Atlantic League. Both boys were developed on the sand lots around town, and are about ripe for fast company.

They were both members of the Howard Athletic Club of this city, and were to have played with the ball team representing that club during the coming season. Their loss will be keenly felt, and the manager of the Howard team will have to go to a long way to find men capable of filling their shoes.

Greene is a pitcher with nerve and plenty of speed, and Harris is a hard-hitting outfielder.

He was the mainstay in the box for the Brookland Independents last summer, and his clever work was instrumental in winning many games for the fast aggregation of ball tossers.

He finished the season with the Howard team of the Commercial League, and his fast fielding and heavy hitting was partly responsible for landing the team in second place in the league.

Miss Moore and Grant Win. New York, March 12.—Miss Elizabeth H. Moore and Wylie C. Grant won two more matches to-day in the round robin mixed doubles lawn tennis tournament in the Sixty-ninth Regiment Armory, and apparently are booked to win the tournament. They have played and won six matches, and have only one more to go.

Washington Boys Signed. Sherman Greene and Kelley Harris with Pottsville. Two more Washington boys have signed to play with the minor league teams during the coming season. Kelley Harris and Sherman Greene having placed their hand Hancock to contracts to play with the Pottsville team of the Atlantic League. Both boys were developed on the sand lots around town, and are about ripe for fast company.

They were both members of the Howard Athletic Club of this city, and were to have played with the ball team representing that club during the coming season. Their loss will be keenly felt, and the manager of the Howard team will have to go to a long way to find men capable of filling their shoes.

Greene is a pitcher with nerve and plenty of speed, and Harris is a hard-hitting outfielder.

"POP" MEYERS SORE.

Veteran Bowler Falls to Land Office of President. Special to The Washington Herald. Annapolis, Md., March 12.—"Pop" Meyers, of Washington, has quit bowling, because to-day he was not elected to the presidency of the American Bowling Congress.

Until to-day he was first vice president of the organization, and cherished fond hopes that he would succeed President Garry Hermann, who refused to run again.

After Robert H. Bryson, of Indianapolis, had been elected, "Pop" stamped out of the convention hall. He declared to Frank Hutchinson, of Chicago, that the bowlers had too little gratitude for him to have anything further to do with them.

BRIGHTWOOD NINE ORGANIZES

Pennant Winners of the Suburban League Ready for Season.

Fast Array of Talent Available—All of the Veterans and Promising New Material in Line.

Candidates for the Brightwood baseball team, last year's champions of the Suburban League, met at the Brightwood Club recently for the purpose of organizing for the coming season.

Brightwood, together with Petworth, Parkview, Mount Pleasant, Woodbury, and possibly Silver Spring, will form the circuit of the Suburban League, which will open its season early in May. Last season this league was composed of some of the best material available in this vicinity, and had a very successful season. It is the purpose of the teams that compose this year's league to put teams in the field that will be able to cope with any in the city.

Clifford Ray, who will manage the Brightwood team, has gotten the jump on the other managers and organized his team in preparation for a lengthy string of practice games. Ray is a pitcher of no mean ability, having officiated on the slab for the Randolph-Macon Academy baseball team for the past few years, and should prove a help to his team in this department.

The team will be composed for the greater part of the same men who carried away the hunting last season. Murrie and Bergman, catchers; Seitz and Robertson, pitchers; Falconer, first base; Donnelly, second base; Donovan, shortstop; Stewart, third base and captain; Dexter, Grant, Plunkett, and Clifford, outfielders, have all signified their intention of again trying for places on the team.

Of the new men, Manager Ray, formerly a pitcher for the Randolph-Macon Academy nine, and "Dukey" Mess, the Georgetown University star, look best. It is thought that the addition of this formidable pair will strengthen the team materially. Both have the advantage of several years' experience and the earmarks of excellent, all-around players.

Other newcomers who are expected to prove notable additions to the team are Rawlins, the mainstay of the Columbia Star pitching staff for the past few years; Buscher, who last year officiated on the slab for Parkview, runner-up in the Suburban League; and Murphy, formerly an outfielder on the Advent Athletic Club nine.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

Manager Ray is at present arranging his preliminary schedule, which will probably include games with Laurel High School, Silver Spring, Rockville Independents, Gaithersburg, and all teams of last year's Independence League. The first game of the season will be played against Laurel High School the latter part of the present month.

TO MEET GEORGETOWN.

Middles Plan for Active Campaign in Tennis. Special to The Washington Herald. Annapolis, Md., March 12.—Another link in the chain of athletic events already in vogue at the Naval Academy, will be added this spring, it having been decided to place tennis on a team basis. Hereafter, tennis was purely a class affair among the midshipmen, but the interest in the sport has increased to such an extent that a team has been organized and several dual contests are being arranged.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.

The matches with outside institutions will include the University of Virginia, Stevens' Institute, Princeton, Bucknell, and Georgetown. The matches will consist of four singles and two double games.